PC TAYLOR #619 had his Police cruiser stopped in front of mine. I observed the male continue around the front of my vehicle where I first observed PC TAYLOR exiting his vehicle. The male was still holding the steel leg in his hands as he walked along the front of my vehicle and towards PC TAYLOR who was now standing next to his vehicle's door.

As this was occurring I was in the process of exiting my vehicle and could hear PC TAYLOR'S voice yelling out at the male then heard two "pops" which I recognized to be gunfire. I observed the male lean forward and step back, turning towards me. The male was still holding the steel bar with in both hands and blood began to come from his abdomen. I drew my firearm, pointed it at the male and instructed him to drop the bar. The male did not
